

Now Hiring: Cabinet Maker / Millworker

Brilun Construction Ltd. – Sydney, NS
$20–$30/hour (based on experience)

Full-Time | Permanent
Benefits available after 3-month probation

At Brilun, we build more than structures — we build futures.

Whether it's cabinetry, concrete, or complex commercial projects, we take pride in delivering quality craftsmanship that lasts. We're currently expanding our Millwork Division and looking for a skilled Cabinet Maker / Millworker who shares our passion for detail, precision, and creating spaces people love.

About the Role:

As a Cabinet Maker / Millworker, you'll bring custom designs to life in both residential and commercial settings. You'll be hands-on in every phase — from interpreting drawings to crafting, assembling, and installing high-end millwork.

What You'll Do:

- Build, assemble, and install custom cabinetry and millwork from blueprints or client specifications
- Operate a wide range of woodworking machinery and hand tools
- Measure, cut, sand, stain, and finish wood with precision and care
- Work closely with designers, project managers, and clients to ensure quality and satisfaction
- Maintain a clean, safe, and efficient workshop
- Solve problems during construction and installation with a positive, can-do approach
- Follow all safety protocols and company policies

What You Bring:

- Proven experience as a cabinet maker, millworker, or finish carpenter
- Strong knowledge of woodworking tools, machinery, and construction methods
- Ability to read blueprints, technical drawings, and specifications accurately
- A sharp eye for detail and high standards of craftsmanship
- Strong communication skills and a collaborative mindset
- Self-motivation, a positive attitude, and a strong work ethic
- High school diploma or equivalent (trade certification in carpentry or woodworking is a plus)

Bonus Skills (Not Required, But Preferred):

- Experience with custom cabinetry and high-end finishes
- Familiarity with CNC machines and advanced woodworking tools
- Background in residential and/or commercial millwork projects

Why Join Brilun?

- Competitive wages, benefits after probation, and consistent full-time work
 - Room to grow in a supportive, team-oriented environment
 - Work that is meaningful, creative, and valued
 - A company culture rooted in craftsmanship, inclusion, safety, and respect
